Virtual Conference on Low-Carbon Finance and the Sustainable Development Goals

This ADBI virtual conference will feature research that examines impediments to low-carbon finance such as the lack of unified criteria for investment that advances climate-related SDGs and limited understanding of the fundamentals of low-carbon finance. It will also address common questions about low-carbon finance, including the difference between green and traditional bonds, the extent to which green bond issuance reduces emissions, and policies needed to encourage investment that promotes climate-related SDGs.

PROGRAM OVERVIEW

A number of countries face the problem related to Non-performing Loans and their levels. Non-performing loans can be a heavy burden for banks, reducing their ability to extend credit to the real economy. Any bank faces non-performing loan risk due to its main function as a financial intermediary. Various efforts have been made by banks to avoid the NPL. However, due to various reasons in business environment or debtor's management ability, any bank continues to experience them. In result, NPLs affect the total economic growth, banks themselves, borrowers and taxpayers too.

Non-Performing Loans Management & Debt-Recovery Strategies Workshop in Hanoi, Vietnam will discuss the framework conditions needed for successful NPL resolution and the various on- and off-balance sheet approaches that are available to manage this problem.

PROGRAM OBJECTIVES

Upon the successful completion of this intensive training course, the participants will be able to demonstrate the solid understanding of:

- Alternative approaches to NPLs management and recovery structures
- Different NPLs recovery strategies and techniques
- Accounting treatment of non-performing loans and loan loss provisioning.

With the sector evolving in unprecedented ways and less than ten years to achieve the 2030 Sustainable Development Goals, the international community requires substantial means to reach our ambitions within this timeframe.

Only by working closely together through the sharing of ideas, forming partnerships and collaborating effectively can we achieve this. Which is why this year, as AidEx celebrates its 10 Year Anniversary on 18 – 19 November 2020 in Brussels, a brand new event encompassing a conference and exhibition will be launched to run alongside it.

Development2030 – Beyond Aid will offer a unique platform specifically for overseas development actors.
