

Our analysts work around the clock to compile a comprehensive list of all the events and conferences in the development sector that you will not find anywhere else. Below are some of the most noteworthy events in the sector.

Upcoming Events

FEBRUARY 2023

Recruitment Challenges of 2022 and Trends for 2023

DevelopmentAid and the IRC cordially invite you to attend the webinar, Recruitment Challenges of 2022 and Trends for 2023, which will take place online on February 1, 2023 at 5 PM (Brussels time zone) or 8 AM Eastern (US Pacific time zone). At the conclusion of the webinar, all logged-in participants will receive a certificate of attendance.

Date and location: 1 February 2023 | Virtual

Registration information: <https://www.developmentaid.org/link/C67dy>

EBRD AgVenture launch

Are you a food or agri-tech start-up facing some of the biggest challenges in the food industry today? We are looking for ideas on how start-ups can help address rising input costs, counter the impact of intensifying climate change and ensure fair inclusion in global value chains. Join our EBRD AgVenture start-up launch event to connect with investors and discover what they are looking for in food and agri-tech start-ups and the sector more broadly. Find out what the EBRD is doing to support innovation and start-ups.

Date and location: 1 February 2023 | Virtual

Registration information: <https://www.developmentaid.org/link/HaJRp>

Management Skills for NGOs

In this highly participatory online training, the organization provide with concrete strategies to become more effective in the current non-profit organization through the application of NGO non-profit management techniques. This workshop is perfect if people are seeking an opportunity to assess the current management abilities. The expert facilitators will not only share the necessary tools and techniques to improve the management skills, but they will help create a plan on how best to apply these skills when in NGO.

Date and location: 1-10 February 2023 | Virtual

Registration information: <https://www.developmentaid.org/link/VXbO3>

Gender and Data

This course addresses the importance of data to advance gender equality, including safe and ethical techniques for data collection, sharing, and management. Participants will gain an understanding of the various methods and modalities for data collection in development and humanitarian settings. Topics covered include sex-disaggregated data, qualitative and quantitative data, data management, safe and ethical data guidance, tools, and resources for gender monitoring and evaluation.

Date and location: 1-28 February 2023 | Virtual

Registration information: <https://www.developmentaid.org/link/zzMMv>

Africa Investments Forum & Awards

The 6th edition of the Africa Investments Forum & Awards, organized by Leaders League group, will be held in Paris on the 7th of February 2023 in a new location : InterContinental Paris Le Grand hotel. This not-to-be-missed event aims to bring together African and European leaders around an insightful conference program, a prestigious Awards ceremony and various networking opportunities.

Date and location: 7 February, 2023 | Paris, France

Registration information: <https://www.developmentaid.org/link/QcCqe>

European Framework Programme for R&I - Innovation Fund Synergies Workshop

On 8 February 2023, the European Climate, Infrastructure and Environment Executive Agency (CINEA), the European Commission's DG Climate Action and Research and Innovation are organising a half-day virtual Workshop on Innovation Fund synergies. The focus of the workshop is to gather participants from mature R&I projects funded under EU R&I funding programmes (notably Horizon 2020) to explore funding opportunities under the EU Innovation Fund to deploy their technologies.

Date and location: 8 February 2023 | Virtual

Registration information: <https://www.developmentaid.org/link/ccpeM>

USAID Procurement: Grants & Cooperative Agreements

Effective USAID procurement is critical to project success, especially in USAID-funded assistance projects. This highly participatory workshop prepares participants to implement the right process – including the procedures, systems, ethics, and standards. The expert facilitators will address the different considerations for procurement throughout the project lifecycle. In addition to maintaining donor compliance, participants will learn how to use procurement planning to be more efficient, more adaptable, and better manage risk.

Date and location: 8 February – 12 March 2023 | Virtual

Registration information: <https://www.developmentaid.org/link/5UYIt>

Threading your way out of the policy tangle: coordination for a sustainable and circular textile value chain

This 12-day ADBI-Toyo University training program for select policy makers from developing Asia and experts (cohort 3) will examine city-wide inclusive sanitation policy and innovation challenges and opportunities in the region. It will focus on sanitation project experiences in Japan and recommendations for the region.

Date and location: 13 - 24 February 2023 | Tokyo, Japan

Registration information: <https://www.developmentaid.org/link/U9JHi>

ECW's High-Level Financing Conference (HLFC) 2023

ECW's High-Level Financing Conference (HLFC) will take place on 16-17 February 2023 at the CICG in Geneva, Switzerland. Hosted by the Government of Switzerland, in close collaboration with the Governments of Colombia, Germany, Niger, Norway, and South Sudan, the HLFC is geared towards ensuring that ECW is able to mobilize the resources needed to deliver on its ambitious plan for the next four years.

Date and location: 16-17 February 2023 | Geneva, Switzerland

Registration information: <https://www.developmentaid.org/link/psrDP>

Virtual Workshop on Energy Transition from Coal to a Low-Carbon Future

This virtual workshop will spotlight new research on the transition from coal to low-carbon energy in Asia and the Pacific. It will focus on related policy challenges and possible solutions. It will also highlight the growth potential and implications of the Asian Development Bank's Energy Transition Mechanism for both the decommissioning of coal-fired power plants and promoting clean energy development.

Date and location: 20 - 22 February 2023 | Virtual

Registration information: <https://www.developmentaid.org/link/PxQ1g>

#1 Source of Development Information, Worldwide
developmentaid.org

